

Upper Mustang Tiji Festival

Introduction

Tiji Festival in Lomonthang, upper Mustang, It is believed that people of Lo Manthang started to celebrate the Tiji festival from 15 century on the time of Lama Lowo Khachen, one of the greatest Buddhist teacher and son of King Amgon Sangpo. a Three-day ritual known as the 'chasing of the demons', held here during the summer. Centered on the Tiji myth, which tells the story of a deity named Dorje Jono. He battles against his demon father to save the Kingdom of Mustang from destruction. Loba villagers converge on the capital to participate in masked dances, offering prayers and celebrating a new season. These three days long annual festival celebrated at Lo Manthang in front of King's palace, which is one of the most well-known and revered festivals in the whole Mustang region. as a religious ceremony, to ward off obstacles and suffering that might befall the region. Later it also came to symbolize the hope and strength of the people of Lo which is divided into seven provinces known as Lo Tso Dhun.

Mustangi people strongly believed that the Tiji festival bring the hope and peace and protect them from evil forces. It base of the myth of a deity Dorje Shunu also called Vajrakila, who took rebirth to subdue all the evil forces and demons that created hell and suffering on earth. Through the power of Tiji festival dances and the variety of forms he takes, The deity defeats the demons and thereby bring peace and prosperity to the kingdom. Thus the festival depicts the victory of good over evil.

During the three-day masked dance Tiji festival in Lo Manthang, upper Mustang, the chosen monk representing Dorje Shunu reveals his various forms and an ancient Thangka painting of Guru Rinpoche Padmasambhava is being displayed as the beating of drums and chanting fills the air of Lo Manthang.

In the days approaching Tiji, the trails from the surrounding villages to Lo Manthang are packed with local people and mule caravans and some driving on Jeep now a days to participate and celebrated their most awaited annual festival. Thus Mustang Tiji festival trek become a special holiday trip to Nepal Himalayas for trekkers around the world to witness the diverse topography with spellbound festival at its best form, no where else can be seen. Mountain Monarch is regularly organising this special Upper Mustang Tiji festival trek each year and the booking for 2018 trip is already open, seats are limited. Why we don't include cost in our website?

NOTE: To provide you service in reasonable cost and attempt to address your each requirement Xtreme Climbers desired to provide you with some information which directly affects the cost and also helps us breakdown the cost. That is why we have decided to clarify our customers that due to the following reasons mentioned below we have not included the cost of each package in the company website.

1. Climbing season: The climbing permit royalty cost for mountain will be different during Spring and Autumn season. Normally most of the climbers climbs Himalayas in the Spring season. Climbing permit during Autumn will be 50% less than the spring season.
2. The cost of the trip depends on Number of persons joining in group for High expedition or Mountain Climbing including number of climbers, non-climber, base camp supporters, medical doctors, The number of climbing Sherpa guides, high altitude porters, kitchen crew, mode of transport you prefer and many other factors can affect the cost of the trip. Alpine climbing guide as well as the category of the hotel accommodation and the facilities that you aspire in the mountains affect the cost.
3. We operate the High Expeditions, Peak Climbing in full arrangement package and basic arrangement service (full board or base camp service) which directly affects the expedition cost.
4. Request numbers of oxygen, mask regulators and the brands the clients require
5. The itinerary may be changed after reaching an understanding between the agency and the client. Other activities could be added or reduced as per the client's request before processing the trip. Price for reduced activities could be deducted and additional activities could be added in mutual understanding.
6. Either you want to operate this expedition as international group joining basics of Xtreme Climbers or individual (private arrangement) expedition
7. Type of high camp food that client want. Specialized food that has to be ordered from foreign countries will be costlier compared to the one available locally.
8. Either any of the climbers intend to attempt any world records? If so, do they require special services or equipment?

Due to the reasons mentioned above we would like to discuss with our client directly before offering the cost. So please feel free to drop your queries in Whatsapp or login to Facebook for any information about your selected package.
