

Putha Hiunchuli 7,246m

Introduction

Putha Hiunchuli (7,246m/23,772ft) the last 7000m peak marking the end of the snow-capped range is the westernmost peak of the Dhaulagiri range. First ascended in 1954 by a British team and the last ascent was made on 23 May 2007 by a Swiss team. Lies to the west of Annapurna South and Ganesh Himal. Putha Hiunchuli is often referred to as Dhaulagiri VI. The expedition route followed by flight Kathmandu-Nepalgunj-Dolpa, Juphal. (The Capital of Snow Leopard) by flight and trek to Dunai, Tarakot, Musi Khola Kagot- Yak Kharka and then will reach Base camp of Mount Putha Hiunchuli.

From the base camp to Camp-1, lying on the moraine, put up cairns for path as it is a little difficult to find it. Normally put up C1 at the beginning of the glacier. As there are not as many crevasses from C1 to B.C it is possible to use Ski. This route is quite clear, so you can set up camp on rock band. On summit day from 5,700m, we leave early in the morning about 4 A.M. And the weather should be clear. Climbing route is long from camp. Only a false summit can be seen from the route. Base Camp 4,800m, Camp I -5,300m, Camp II -6,700m- and make a straight push Summit from C 2.

NOTE: Ski Record set by Xtreme Climbers.

- Xtreme Climbers probably the first company to make a 100% successful Climbing Skiing record above 8500m.

Why we don't include cost in our website?

NOTE: To provide you service in reasonable cost and attempt to address your each requirement Xtreme Climbers desired to provide you with some information which directly affects the cost and also helps us breakdown the cost. That is why we have decided to clarify our customers that due to the following reasons mentioned below we have not included the cost of each package in the company website.

1. Climbing season: The climbing permit royalty cost for mountain will be different during Spring and Autumn season. Normally most of the climbers climbs Himalayas in the Spring season. Climbing permit during Autumn will be 50% less than the spring season.
2. The cost of the trip depends on the number of persons joining in group for High expedition or Mountain Climbing including number of climbers, number of base camp supporters, medical doctors, The number of climbing Sherpa guides, high altitude porter, crew, mode of transport you prefer and many other factors can affect the cost of the trip. Alpine climbing is not in the category of the hotel accommodation and the facilities that you aspire in the mountains affect the cost.
3. We operate the High Expeditions, Peak Climbing in full arrangement package and basic arrangement service (full board or base camp service) which directly affects the expedition cost.
4. Request numbers of oxygen, mask regulators and the brands the clients require
5. The itinerary may be changed after reaching an understanding between the agency and the client. Other activities could be added or reduced as per the client's request before processing the trip. Price for reduced activities could be deducted and additional activities could be added in mutual understanding.
6. Either you want to operate this expedition as international group joining basics of Xtreme Climbers or individual (private arrangement) expedition.
7. Type of high camp food that clients require. Any specialized food that has to be ordered from foreign countries will be costlier compared to the one available here.
8. Either any of the climbers intend to attempt any world records? If so, do they require special services or equipment?

Due to the reasons mentioned above we would like to discuss with our client directly before offering the cost. So please feel free to drop your queries in _____ or login to _____ for any information about your selected package.
